Yeats’s Poetry “Sailing to Byzantium” Summary & Analysis
Pre-Renaissance Painting: 14th-Century Byzantium, Kievan Rus’, and their contested legacies

The Age of Justinian was followed by a political decline, since most of Justinian’s conquests were lost and the Empire faced acute crisis with the invasions of the Avars, Slavs.

How is the stylistic difference between Greek sculpture of the seventh century BCE and of the fourth century BCE to be explained? Assuming that the archaic Greek sculptor is doing his best to fashion a stone image of a naked man exactly as his eyes see him (and the supposition seems reasonable in view of the later developments of Greek art.
